Gastronomy and what to do

Things to do in Funchal:

Funchal, the capital of Madeira, offers a blend of natural beauty and cultural experiences. You can visit the stunning Botanical Gardens for breathtaking views and lush plant life or explore the historic São Tiago Fortress. The Mercado dos Lavradores is a lively spot to taste local produce and buy artisan goods, while a cable car ride to Monte provides panoramic views of the city and coastline. For a unique experience, take a traditional toboggan ride down the streets of Monte.

Spa:

Tucked away in the Palheiro Nature Estate, just a short distance from the hotel, this boutique spa offers a peaceful retreat designed to refresh both body and mind. Blending seamlessly with the lush natural surroundings, the spa provides an elegant escape where relaxation and sophistication go hand in hand. Designed with a sleek and modern aesthetic, the spa creates a refined atmosphere. Within four exclusive treatment rooms- Palmeira, Agapanthus, Camelia, and Cypress guests can immerse themselves in a variety of rejuvenating massages and beauty therapies, each carefully crafted to promote deep relaxation and renewal. Experience high-performance treatments with the expertise of skilled professionals alongside the premium skincare line Thalgo.

Your wellness experience extends beyond treatments, unwind in the Finnish sauna, indulge in the Turkish steam bath, or refresh yourself under rain and waterfall showers. Take a dip in the heated indoor pool with massage jets for ultimate relaxation, or enjoy the sunshine beside the inviting outdoor pool.

Golf:

The stunning golf course is among Europe's finest. Situated next to the luxurious five-star Madeira Island Hotel Casa Velha do Palheiro, part of the prestigious Relais & Châteaux collection, the 18-hole, par-72 championship course winds through a spectacular landscape of maritime pines and exotic botanical gardens filled with lush, subtropical flora. Situated nearly 500 meters (1,640 feet) above sea level, the course offers breathtaking views of Madeira's rugged mountains and the endless expanse of the Atlantic Ocean. Just a short 10-minute drive below lies Funchal, the island's vibrant capital. Created by acclaimed golf course designer Cabell B. Robinson, this visually stunning course makes the most of Madeira's natural outline. Its steep ridges and deep valleys create a thrilling test for golfers of all skill levels, ensuring a memorable experience year-round.
