Description

COVES, PINE TREES AND SEA

The Parador de Aiguablava overlooks the sea, surrounded by pine trees, in an exceptional enclave, the Punta D`es Muts, where the traveller can enjoy beautiful beaches, coves and natural spaces. It is an ideal location for sports and open-air activities, as well as relaxing walks through beautiful green areas. Under the special light of the Mediterranean, the building offers its guests a high level of comfort and numerous services both for the individual guest and for business meetings. There is a gymnasium, swimming pool, sauna and bedrooms with beautiful panoramic views of the sea. The coastal influence can also be felt in the typical `ampurdanesa` cooking, with dishes such as sea urchins, `caracoles a la llauna` (grilled snails) and chicken with lobster, sampled in the summer on the beach where the restaurant is located.
