Introduction

A quick culinary short break to Lisbon, Portugal

A short break to Lisbon is an experience with so much to offer. That's why we have put together some recommended experiences in the city like an event to see the sunset views and then a live Fado show with dinner on your first day of arrival in the Portuguese capital. On the second day, you will enjoy in the morning a gastronomic journey tasting the best food in Lisbon with our Cooking Class and Market Tour. Meet your chef, then head to a local market to handpick fresh ingredients for your traditional Portuguese Cooking Class and meal. Then our local guide will show you around the city visiting the Jerónimos Monastery, Belem Tower (from the outside), Castle of Sao Jorge and Alfama Quarter in the afternoon.

On the third day, for a day out of the city, we have a few options like: heading to Sintra, a place like a page torn from a fairy tale, a place where Nature and Man have combined in such a perfect symbiosis that UNESCO has granted it World Heritage Site status. The next stop will be at a winery in the beautiful village of Colares. Then in the afternoon, walk along the promenade of Cascais, a beautiful coastal resort town. The second option if you want a more active day then you could do an Arrabida Park Tour SUP in the morning then a kayak tour and then hike with Picnic style lunch, a fun-packed day in a beautiful coastal area nearby the city.

If you did want to add another night to the stay just contact tour specialists, and we can tailor the short break for you.

You could combine this short break with others, for example, you could take the train, flying or even a chauffeur transfer to Porto or over to Seville, Spain. See the add-on section for further details.
