Introduction

Explore Virtually Funchal's Streets & The Bustling Lavradores Farmers' Market

Come on a virtual live-streaming walk with our Founder Sean O'Rourke through the vibrant streets of Funchal, Madeira's charming capital. It is known for its picturesque alleyways, colorful buildings, and deep cultural heritage enriched by a fascinating history. Funchal's streets are full of monuments and stores with a lovely blend of old-world charm and modern vibrancy. As you explore, you will admire unique local architecture, lively cafes, and the city's famous black-and-white mosaic pavements. Since Funchal is located in the island's coastal region, you will also experience a close connection with the sea admiring the spectacular views of the Atlantic Ocean.

The tour continues at the iconic Mercado dos Lavradores (Farmers Market) inaugurated in 1940, where the heart of Funchal truly comes to life. Here, you will experience the active atmosphere of vendors offering fresh products, exotic fruits, fragrant flowers, and the island's excellent fish such as Peixe Espada (Black scabbard fish), Yellowfin tuna, Atlantic Bluefin tuna, and Swordfish among other species. You will also take a peak around the seafood stalls where you will see the popular delicacy, Lapas (Limpets). This market is a sensory feast, showcasing the best of Madeira's local produce and craftsmanship.
