Real people at the heart of artisan goat cheese production. Loved meeting the goats. Sean, Angie & Tiernan always show us special places and the river walk was one of them - a true green heart of Galicia, complete with kissing tree. I hope I get there one day.

A lovely tour incorporating lots of elements - goat farming, cheese production, a beautiful walk in the woods and some mythology.

Thank you for showing us this great family business producing prize-winning cheeses. It was a great experience seeing their premises and the beautiful and cute goats, and the majestic “mastínes”. Then the walk to the “wishing tree” and the corn mills. Galicia is amazing and magical (let´s not forget green as well). Thank you for sharing it with us, honouring the great Galician spirit, beauty and food. Lovely to see all three of you, Angie, Tiernan and Sean.

Amazing tour with Sean & family. I really enjoyed seeing the goats on the farm and seeing cheese. Hopefully next time we can catch them on the production day so we get a better understanding of the process of cheese making. The trail by the river was super nice and I liked the cheese presentation and seeing you guys enjoy them. Made me wish I was there! Thank you for the tour!

Sean and Tiernan are like friends now--I always enjoy their tours--where ever they go they always manage to find food--it makes me laugh--what fun we have. Today it was cheese. But the views on the river trail were stunning--what a beautiful place they live in.
