Introduction

Get to know the Culture, Gastronomy and Traditional Music of Galicia on a Live Virtual Tour of a Popular Galician Fair

There are a lot of festas (fairs) in Galicia, in the northwestern part of Spain, related around Culture, Gastronomy, Religion, or traditional Music worth enjoying. Join us on one virtually in the fishing village of Moaña, Galicia, Spain where you will admire a variety of Arts, Crafts, Gastronomy, Culture, and Celtic Galician Music!

You will see the EcoArtesa a display of ecological products, handicrafts, and sustainable agriculture from Moaña. There will be about 50 stalls with different products. Before and after the parade and music events will we visit some of these stalls of local arts & crafts, food, etc.

On this 1st part of the tour you will see the main parade where more than 30 people are dressed in the traditional Galician Folk attire. The Charaviscas Folkloric group will perform traditional music and dance. After that, we will walk through the different stalls in the food market at this fair seeing all the displayed products and having a great time.

Get to know how Galician people celebrate their festas with two enthusiastic local guides that love their land Sean & Tiernan!

This will be a one day online experience, so don't miss your opportunity to enjoy this traditional Galician fair! Like they say here in Galicia “Festa Rachada” (Party in Style!)
