Introduction

Walking the Coastal Camino Way

This itinerary traces the Portuguese Coastal Camino, beginning in the seaside town of Baiona and winding north along the Atlantic coastline through fishing villages, riverside paths, and historic towns. Each stage offers a balance of scenic walking and cultural discovery, leading to the final arrival in Santiago de Compostela, the spiritual heart of Galicia and the ultimate destination for pilgrims for centuries.

From Baiona to Santiago and Beyond

After exploring Baiona's maritime heritage, the journey continues through Vigo, Redondela, Pontevedra, and Padrón, towns rich in tradition and history. Arriving in Santiago is a highlight, with time to enjoy its medieval streets and the grandeur of the cathedral. The itinerary then extends westward to Finisterre, the legendary "end of the world," where travelers are rewarded with sweeping ocean views and a profound sense of completion at the Atlantic coast.

Galicia's Gastronomy and Food Tours

No journey through Galicia is complete without experiencing its renowned cuisine. In Baiona, a guided food tour introduces the town's seafood traditions, from razor clams and scallops to local specialties paired with Albariño wines. Later in Santiago de Compostela, the culinary adventure continues with a visit to the bustling Mercado de Abastos and tastings in the city's best tapas bars, offering a delicious insight into Galicia's food culture.

Day by day itinerary

DAY 2:

BAIONA

- Breakfast.
- Gourmet Food Tour in Baiona (Duration: 3hrs.30mins. approx.)
- 12:00PM: Meet your Private English-speaking food and wine guide at the entrance to the 2000-year-old Fortress and Parador outside the new Tourist Office in the corner of Palma Park.
- We will take a peek inside the fish and seafood auction house at the port.
- Then, after a short walk along the promenade of Alfonso IX to see in the harbor the replica of La Pinta, which brought the first word of the discovery of the Americas arriving March 1st, 1493 on A Ribeira Beach in Baiona
- We will pass by the fishing port with all the small colourful boats and the fish auction house (Lonja de Baiona) which brings in all the fresh fish and seafood every morning.
- We will take a peek inside the fish and seafood auction house at the port.
- After our stroll we arrive at our first tapas stop with views of the bay. We will try some of the fresh Navajas (Razor Clams) and Zamburiñas (Baby Scallops) paired with Albariño wine of the D.O. Rias Baixas.
- Now we walk through the cobblestone streets of the old part of town lined with tapas bars and restaurants. Our second stop will be in one of the classic tapas taverns in Baiona. Taste the house specialty which is Tortilla con queso Tetilla (Spanish Potato Omlete with Tetilla Cheese), Chipirones fritos (Fried Baby Squid) or Pimientos de Padron, paired with Treixadura from the D.O. Ribeiro and a red Menica wine from the D.O. Ribeira Sacra.
- Walking further up through the streets of the old part of town to the Liberata Square including its chapel dated 1695 and Santa Maria Church which dates back to the 13th Century. This is part of the Camino de Santiago (Portuguese Coastal Way from Porto to Santiago) which passes through the town including the old Pilgrims 16th Century Hospital.

- Our last stop in the new part of town is at an innovative gastro-bar. Savour tapas that are a bit more elaborated... Tartar de sardina ahumada con mayonesa japonesa y pan soplado (Smoked sardine tartare with Japanese mayonnaise and puffed bread), Mejillones en escabeche de naranja con crema de verduras y patatillas Bonnilla (Mussels marinated in orange sauce with vegetable cream and Bonnilla potato chips), Empanada crujiente de rubia gallega chorizo del rosal y shitaki (Crispy empanada pie with Galician beef, chorizo del Rosal, and shiitake mushrooms), and then a dessert flan roto de queso ,toffe de cafe arabico y migas de tarta de Santiago (Crumbled cheese flan, Arabic coffee toffee and Santiago cake crumbs) .
- Ending with a stroll down the street, Rua Carabela a Pinta, with a very nice promenade that takes us back to where we started near the seafront.
- 03:30PM approx.: A scrumptious end to our gourmet food tour of Baiona.
- Rest of the day at your arrangements.
