Introduction

Tasting the Elegant Albariño and O Rosal Wines of the Rias Baixas

We'll begin our adventure in the stunning O Rosal Valley, one of the sub-zones of the renowned D.O. Rias Baixas wine region, known for its breathtaking landscapes and world-class wines. This area is particularly famous for producing outstanding Albariño, a crisp, aromatic white wine that has gained international acclaim. In addition to Albariño, the region is also home to the distinctive Rosal wines, crafted from a blend of local grape varieties, including Albariño, Loureiro, and Caiño, offering a unique expression of the terroir.

As part of our experience, we will also have the opportunity to taste the Caiño monovarietal wine, a relatively new addition to the region's offerings, which has been receiving glowing reviews for its bold flavors and character. We'll take a tour of one of the most prominent wineries in the area, where we'll delve into the winemaking process and learn about the history and techniques that make these wines so special.

Stunning Coastal Views & The Historic Town of Baiona

We will continue making our way along the stunning, rocky southern coastline of Galicia, where the rugged beauty of the landscape meets the Atlantic Ocean. Along the way, we'll make a stop to explore the charming seaside village of Baiona, a place rich in history and character. Baiona holds an important place in the past, as it was here in 1493 that the first word of the discovery of the Americas reached Europe when the ship La Pinta sailed into its bay. We'll take a leisurely walk through the village, soaking in its historical significance and picturesque surroundings. Afterward, we will either return to Vigo or choose to stay a bit longer in Baiona to further enjoy its quaint atmosphere and coastal views.

A day packed full of contrast walking, exploring, and tasting the local wines in the Albarino wine region!

Day by day itinerary

DAY 1:

VIGO OR BAIONA - O ROSAL VALLEY ALBARINO WINE COUTRY - BAIONA - VIGO

- 11:30AM: Your private English-speaking driver and food & wine *guide will pick you up at your hotel, cruise port, airport, or train station.
- First, we start off by driving by road down to the O Rosal valley, part of the Albarino wine region famous for it's Abariño white wines.
- 12:30PM: We will enjoy a guided tour of one of the top Albarino wineries... Bodegas Terras Gauda in the area as well as a tasting of their fine wines.
- 02:00PM: Then we will make our way to the Southernmost point of Galicia's Lower Rias Baixas, where we will then follow up the picturesque coastline stopping at the pretty village of Baiona.
- 02:45PM: We will have time for some tapas.
- Here we will visit the Castle of Monterreal which is now a fabulous Parador hotel and offers amazing views of the coast. This village is also a very important yachting port and also witnessed the arrival of the Caraval Pinta bringing the word back to Europe of the discovery of the Americas in 1493.
- You have some time on your own to walk around the Old Town streets or the maritime walk of the Parador.
- 04:45PM: Continuing up the coast we will arrive back in Vigo.
- 05:30PM: Your Driver and Guide will drop you off back at your hotel, cruise ship, train station or airport and say the final goodbye.

Fantastic Rias Baixas Albarino Wine Tour!

Our trip was fantastic. Sean was super knowledgeable and friendly and was able to interact with all the members of our party on a very personal level. The kids loved him as well as the grown-ups. We'll definitely use him in the future!
